Welsh. 1973 Winner of George Prince of Wales Cup.

Comet's younger half-brother out of Sally, Abergavenny Dafydd Ddu (pictured left) was shown in 2013 as a yearling and his winnings are as follows : 1st Denbigh & Flint, 1st and Res Severn Valley, 1st and Res Stafford County, 1st youngstock Clwyd Association and 5th Royal Welsh.

Some of his other winnings are as follows:

2014 1st 4yrs and over and Reserve Champion Welsh D at Great Yorkshire Show

2013 Cuddy Qualifier 2012 Royal Highland Show - Champion Sec. D Ponies UK Summer Champs –

Champion Sec D and Res. Supreme Champion in Hand M&M Youngstock Champion at the Royal Welsh.

Qualified for Cuddy again in 2019, Champion NPS with his daughter Black Pearl being Reserve to him.

Abergavenny Sally was in 2008 2nd Junior Brood Mare at RWAS 1st & Champion at Monmouth Show.

2007 As a five year old, she was brought out under saddle being a consistent prize winner including 1st at Monmouth Show with rider Claire Parsons.

Youngstock Shows: Consistent winner in Youngstock classes being 1st, 2nd & 3rd at the RWAS in her first three years & 1st as a yearling at Lampeter Youngstock & Stallion Show. Champion at Three Counties as a yearling & also Bronze & Silver medal winner.

At a recent Abergavenny open day Dr Wynne Davies M.B.E spoke about her “Abergavenny Sally who is as good a cob mare as has ever been”.

Crugybar Mabon Mai was brought in to stand at Llanarth Stud as a youngster for four years he clicked very well with the Llanarth mares so producing Llanarth Prince of Wales.

Comet has proved high fertility, and his stock is already winning in the ring.

2016 was his showing debut and what a season it was. He Qualified for PUK, Equifest, Northern Breeders & NCPA Pony of the Year for the 2nd time. His list of 2016 achievements are as follows, a great list for a young 4 year old.

- April 2016 - NCPA Show Richmond, Supreme of Show, won NPS Silver Medal Qualified Glen Greenwood & Qualified for the Northern Breeders
- May 2016 - North Eastern Counties Welsh Cob Association, 2nd Welsh D Stallion
- June 2016 - All Welsh Show Wetherby, won 4 year old Stallion Class
- June 2016 - Royal Highland, 2nd Welsh D Stallion Class
- July 2016 - Native Pony Festival, 1st Welsh D & Champion All Welsh
- July 2016 - Great Yorkshire 3rd Welsh D Stallion
- July 2016 - Border Union Show Kelso, won Welsh D Stallion & Champion of All Welsh.
- August 2016 - Area 4 Summer Show 2nd Welsh D & 3rd Northern Breeders

For his first season he took everything in his stride travelling with mares on many occasions. He has a lovely temperament and is certainly a quality stallion indeed. A perfect match for Welsh D's or a cross with many other breeds putting in the native blood, temperament and movement.

We are thrilled with our home bred colt foal from Comet, “Glenwoodstud Black Knight”, Dam Abergavenny Bronwen who has herself been Champion in the Show ring.

In 2017 Comet had more good wins, some of which are:

Pedigree

Llanarth Prince of Wales a great stock getter and amazing winner.

In 2018 at Kent County he Qualified yet again for the Cuddy at HOYS, where he went on to be 2nd. This proves what an absolutely fantastic stallion he is.
